The Texas Intellectual Property Law Journal is published three times per year, in the Fall, Winter and Spring, and is published in cooperation with the University of Texas School of Law. The journal is the official journal of the State Bar of Texas Intellectual Property Law Section. The subscription cost to the members of the section are covered by their annual membership dues. Membership dues in the Intellectual Property Law Section are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal income tax purposes. However, such dues may be deductible as a business expense. The subscription price for nonmembers is $25 per year.

The materials published in this Journal do not necessarily represent the views or actions of the State Bar of Texas, or this Section, unless expressly stated to the contrary. Nor do the materials necessarily represent the views of the University of Texas or its School of Law.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief, c/o Arnold, White & Durkee, 750 Bering Drive, Suite 400, Houston, TX, 77057, and should adhere to the following guidelines: use footnotes and not endnotes; italicize rather than underline; double-space both text and footnotes; number manuscript pages; and use WordPerfect 5.1 and send either a 3.5 or 5.25 disk, instead of copies. For further instructions, contact the Editor-in-Chief at 713-787-1424. Citations should follow the form prescribed in the 15th edition of the Blue Book.
